

50 E. Washington St.
Suite 400
Chicago, IL 60602
(312) 283-1590

1000 Maine Ave. SW
Suite 450
Washington, D.C. 20024
(202) 652-4511

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
APRIL 27, 2021

MASSEY & GAIL LLP ANNOUNCES NEW PARTNER IN CHICAGO AND ASSOCIATE IN WASHINGTON, D.C., OFFICES OF 23-ATTORNEY LITIGATION BOUTIQUE

CHICAGO — Massey & Gail LLP, a high-powered boutique law firm in Chicago, Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, announced today that Caitlin Alejandrina Kovacs has joined the firm as a partner in Chicago. She was previously a partner at Kirkland & Ellis LLP.

Ms. Kovacs' arrival comes less than a month after the firm welcomed Alethea Anne Swift as an associate in the firm's Washington office. Both attorneys are experienced commercial litigators who provide still more firepower to Massey & Gail and its approach of directly engaging with clients to provide strategic, effective solutions.

"Our clients consistently line us up against the nation's largest law firms, and we are thrilled to have Caitlin, a partner from one of those very firms, join our team," said Leonard A. Gail, the firm's co-founder.

Co-founder Jonathan S. Massey, said: "The addition of Caitlin in Chicago following Anne's arrival in our DC office expands the depth and expertise we provide our clients."

Ms. Kovacs rose from summer associate to partner while in the commercial litigation group at Kirkland. She has litigated cases in both state and federal courts involving a wide array of subject matters, such as breach of contract, fraud, products liability, and restructuring issues. She has also represented clients involved in both internal and government-initiated investigations and has experience in False Claims Act issues. And, she has maintained an active pro bono practice, representing clients in such matters as Section 1983 claims and immigration.

"I am delighted to join Massey & Gail and look forward to helping guide the firm's clients through high-stakes litigation. I also welcome the opportunity to help the firm grow," Ms. Kovacs said.

Ms. Kovacs earned her bachelor's and law degrees from Northwestern University, both cum laude. During her time at the law school, she served as the president of the Latino Law Students Association and on the editorial board of the Journal of Criminal Law and Criminology. She is also a former student and PILI fellow of the Bluhm Legal Clinic's Center on Wrongful Convictions.

Ms. Swift's commercial litigation experience similarly includes trials and appeals in state and federal courts. She clerked for Judge James E. Graves, Jr., of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, and for U.S. District Judge Robert Pitman of the Western District of Texas. She was previously a big law litigation associate at Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld in Washington and served as Special Counsel to the U.S. Senate Committee on the Judiciary.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APRIL 24, 2019

Page | 2

Anne earned her bachelor's degree from Lewis & Clark College and graduated with honors from the University of Texas School of Law, where she was an editor of the Texas Law Review. She had previously worked for several years as a crisis management consultant.

About Massey & Gail LLP

Massey & Gail LLP, founded in 2008, is dedicated to providing clients, many of whom are among the nation's largest and most sophisticated corporations, with the highest quality legal services —from strategic advice to regulatory work, and trial and appellate litigation. With offices in Chicago, Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, the 23-lawyer firm offers clients a varied, seasoned, and talented team of litigators and counselors with experience spanning U.S. Supreme Court and appellate advocacy, civil and criminal trial work, regulatory issues, and executive level in-house advice and counsel.

The firm is the exclusive Presenting Sponsor of the National Association for Urban Debate Leagues 2020-21 I RESOLVE public debate series, which showcases the power of high school debate for a public audience while exploring some of the most pressing issues in society through the perspective, voice and values of society's next generation of leaders – high school debaters. For more information, please visit: <https://www.masseygail.com>.

###

Media contact:

Randall Samborn

312-343-1142

randall@randallsamborn.com